

WELLINGTON CHRISTIAN SCHOOL DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

The doctrine of Wellington Christian School shall be that biblical system commonly called the “Reformed Faith” as expressed in the Westminster Confession of Faith together with the Larger and Shorter Catechism as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures.

B. The following nine points are irreducible essentials of Scripture to which a teacher or staff member must subscribe without hesitation:

1. That the Holy Spirit did so inspire, guide and move the writers of Holy Scripture as to keep the original writings free from all error; that the existing manuscripts and translations are so free from later corruptions as to be properly regarded as the supreme and final authority in faith and life.
2. That there is one God existing in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, coequal and coeternal.
3. That man was created in the image of God; that he sinned and thereby incurred not only physical death, but also spiritual death which is separation from God; and that all human beings are born with sinful nature and in the eyes of God are sinners in thought, word and deed and consequently are unable to save themselves.
4. That Jesus Christ, although being the eternal Son of God, was begotten by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary and is thus God and true man.
5. That the miracles performed by the Lord Jesus Christ were demonstration of His power, love, and deity.
6. That the Lord Jesus Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures, as our only substitute to satisfy divine justice, and that all who receive Him by faith and express repentance of their sins are justified on the basis of His shed blood.
7. That on the third day after His crucifixion, our Lord Jesus Christ rose bodily from the dead; He subsequently ascended into heaven, and there sits at the right hand of the Father, making intercession for the saints.
8. That our Lord Jesus Christ will return bodily to this world.
9. That there shall be a future day of resurrection in which both the redeemed and the damned shall be raised from the dead; the redeemed to enjoy the estate of eternal blessedness, and the damned to suffer the eternal torment of retribution.
